Sloane Stripe 0122-FAB-SLW03 Willow

Our Sloane Stripe drapery is for those who crave a little pomp and circumstance. Updated in four ethereal colours, this traditional ticking stripe stands apart because of its silk and linen blend. Unlike most cottons, the linen creates a subtle slub across the weft, while the silk gives it an unmistakably lustrous finish. A juxtaposition of strength and elegance, this timeless drapery is the epitome of luxury, and it effortlessly coordinates with the full Sloane collection.
